Answered Prayers

We always hear that prayers can be answered as, “Yes,” “No,” or “Not right now.” We have come to know that last answer very intimately over the past year.

But praise the Lord, we have a different answer now! We have visas to enter Papua New Guinea and tickets to depart on November 10, arriving in Port Moresby on the 12th via Manila, Philippines. We were able to get our passports sent back to the PNG embassy, the visas processed, and on their way back to us within about 22 hours of calling them. For anyone following our journey recently, you know that is a miracle.

After months of waiting, we are now in the measured rush of getting everything packed over the next few weeks and fitting in all the last-minute things that come with international travel. It is exciting to finally have an actual date to work toward.

Thank you to everyone for sticking with us through all the uncertainty. We appreciate the prayers, kind words, and continued financial partnership. It is not cheap to fly 15 time zones away, and Church of God (Holiness) World Missions covers that expense for us. We would greatly appreciate it if you could give them a little extra to help with these kinds of costs. Their contact information is at the bottom of the Back Page.

Prayer Corner

Praises:

- Visas (a crazy-fast turnaround time!)
- Having tickets in hand for travel
- Christy’s foot is slowly healing
- The prayers and support of so many friends and partners

Requests:

- That we will be healthy for travel (we have had normal fall sniffles/coughs)
- That our travels and connections will go smoothly and be safe
- For our transition back to life and work and school in PNG
- Complete healing for Christy’s foot

We found a very temporary (about 15 minutes) pet crawling around the yard. The joys of summer and fall in the USA!

Lawrance at Harmony Hill Youth Camp glowing in the dark. We got to go to Kid's Kamp, Youth Camp, and Minister's Conference.

Friends invited us to their homeschool cooperative's ice skating day. The boys did pretty well for their second time ever ice skating.

We have enjoyed Bass Pro Shops a couple of times, too. It has been good to see some of the attractions in our own region of the world.

Left: Our family was able to go hiking and camping several times during the summer and fall.

Right: Jacob was able to play in a checkers tournament at the Choctaw Labor Day Festival.
